A STATE HIGHWAY

GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN
WOULD BUILD ROADS.

Believes Convicts Should Be Employed to Improve the Roads of the State—Suggests a Great State Highway From Portland to San Francisco—Governor Will Study Prison Methods of San Quentin.

Governor Chamberlain goes to San Francisco, where he is invited to open the Parker campaign on next Monday evening.

While in California, the governor will be accompanied by Warden James, and will visit the San Quentin and Folsom state prisons, and inspect their methods of handling men and working them. He has taken a great deal of time visiting the prison at Salem, and becoming acquainted with the actual character and conditions of the men and prison life, says the Salem Journal.

The governor does not take radical views about convict labor competing with free labor to the extent some seem to fear.

He says most of the large prisons carry on some kind of industries, and it is only a question of finding industries that compete as little as possible locally or with other states.

He says the number of convicts that can be worked on the roads can be extended, and he believes that about 50 men from the Oregon prison could be worked and as the system was perfected even more.

To cut out all contract labor, and try to work all the prisoners on the public roads he does not believe possible. As it would cost a great deal of money for steel cages, and transportation in steel cells, and there are large numbers of the convicts, like hold-up men and dangerous criminals, who could never be, with safety, trusted outside the walls of a prison.

He favors the extension of the num-

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalp of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. ber worked on the roads, and a larger appropriation for that purpose.

The object lesson on constructing a piece of road with convict labor from this city to the reform school, has been a great success. The road is admitted by even his political opponents to be the best piece of public highway ever built in the state, and it stood the first rains better than was expected.

The governor says the road problem is comparatively easy in Eastern Oregon, but wants the convict-built roads extended in Western Oregon.

He says he can see no reason why there should not be a fine highway built from Portland to the California line with convict labor. The five or six miles have been made under the most difficult conditions. The same amount of money would build twice as much road anywhere else, and he wants authority to construct a longer piece of road before there is any special legislation, and then let the experience gained in that way be utilized in drafting a bill to employ convict labor on a larger scale.

He is in favor of proceeding slowly in the matter and carrying the sentiment of the people with his reform, rather than seek to impose a system upon the people which they are not thoroughly prepared to accept, and that has not been demonstrated to be a success.

Blown to Atoms.

Chefoo, Oct. 25.—Admiral Togo has received many applications from junior officers desirous of emulating the example of a lieutenant who, with a torpedo, swam to the entrance of Port Arthur. The forts then opened fire and exploded the torpedo, and the officer was blown to atoms. Admiral Togo, it is said, has declined to mention any similar daring enterprise.
